Subject: FW: Attached Letter from Black Belt Citizens

Dear Lilian,

Attached please find a letter submitted to ADEM today asking that ADEM remove images and text from an ADEM brochure appearing online that seem calculated to create the false impression that ADEM is providing support and guidance for Black Belt Citizens Fighting for Health and Justice and the residents of Uniontown. To the knowledge of Complainants, the use of the image was unauthorized.

FYI.

Please let me know if you have any question.

Sincerely,

Marianne

Subject: Attached Letter from Black Belt Citizens

Dear Mr. LeFleur,

Attached please find a letter submitted on behalf of Black Belt Citizens Fighting for Health and Justice to register an objection to asserts and the unauthorized use of images in "community Engagement," an updated publication of the Alabama Department of Environmental Management ("ADEM") appearing on ADEM's website. Black Belt Citizens requests that ADEM remove the images and revise the text of the publication as suggested in the letter.

I would greatly appreciate a response.

Sincerely,

Marianne Engelman Lado
